AVENUES TO BELIEF. .

What helps us we prize. My favorite books are all underlined, sayings that have inspired me are marked and undermarked and undermarked and undermarked and undermarked and undermarked and undermarked and many of the volumes open in my hand to the scored pages.

Books rise, to real fame by the number of readers they have helped.

Taken all in all no book has been so underscored, and has so inspired as the Bhile. It represents a 1000 years of a nation's life. It is a library are of unequal value, so it is unequal, but it rises to the greatest heights. No other inspiration is equal to that of the gayings of Jesus, no other hymns equal some of the Hebrew hymns, no thinking beats Job, and no imagination is grander than that of Second issials.

Since I believe in the Bhile because it helps in that life.

Never Neglect Colds; Treat Them Promptly

Often they lead to those pulmonary troubles which are reaponable for more than one-tenth of all lives lost through illness.

Heavy colds which develop deep-scated coughs or cause inflammation of the air-passages and persist is spite of medication, weaken the system to a point where resistance easily is overcome—and asthms, brought and pulmonary troubles are the result. To renew normal resistance, Eckman's Alterative has been found highly boneficial in many instances. Its lime content is so combined with other remedial agents as to be easily assimilated by the average personand it contains no narcotice or habitoring drugs of any sort. So it's safe to try.
